Dearest Mr. Evanson,

Thank you for your impassioned communiqué, which I received with the gravity and reverence it so richly deserves.

Upon immediate introspection and deep soul-searching, we came to recognize the profound potential harm that smiling high school, soon-to-be-graduating seniors—photographed in broad daylight while fully clothed and standing in a government classroom, whom the majority also possess public YouTube channels, Instagram and TikTok accounts —could pose to the greater fabric of our civil liberties and privacy expectations. We want you to know that we have taken swift, restorative, and intentional action by removing every image, video, and mention of Carlsbad High School students' names from our website and social media platforms.

Let the digital record reflect: We hear you, we see you, and we stand in radical compliance.

May we also express our boundless gratitude to you, your administration, and the inspirational Mr. Aster for the extraordinary privilege of being invited into such a brave space of academic enlightenment. The Sultan's tenure as a guest speaker was nothing short of transformative. Since that day, we have been basking in a radiant flood of love and affirmation from students and parents alike. Their messages have touched our spirit and fueled our purpose in ways that mere algorithms cannot quantify.

Please do extend our warmest regards, brightest blessings, and safest spaces to all the beautiful humans at Carlsbad High School. Should the universe align and our Dear Leader be welcomed back, we promise to bring nothing but mindfulness, consent forms, and perhaps a few non-invasive, ethically-sourced good vibes...and we'll definitely Uber to CBAD High next time! (wink)

With kindness, compliance, and compassionate accountability,

Robert Dobalina
Director of Security for His Excellency (With Informed Consent)
